M+ promotes respect for intellectual property rights. We seek to obtain copyright-holders' permission in advance of publishing images and other content on our non-commercial website.

On a case-by-case basis, when rights-holders cannot be identified or their whereabouts remain unknown, M+ is obliged to strike a balance between upholding the rights of consent of creators and copyright-holders and advancing the knowledge of its collections of visual culture among the general public.

If you are a rights-holder of specific material presented on this website and have concerns about permissions, please email rights@mplus.org.hk, introducing yourself and providing the following information:

- Your contact details
- The full details of the material's creator
- The exact and full web address (URL) where you found the material
- A statement that, under penalty of perjury, you are the rights-holder or are an authorised representative (please note that you must be able to prove this statement)

If you have contact details of copyright-holders in this list, please email us.
